Rates of Advertising.

najaquare, (or less) 3 naertions,

Eachadditional insertion,

Taree months,

Six months, 3 00 Six months, - -8 00 One fourthof a column per year, 15 00
'' half '' 18 00
'' column '' 30 00 " column 30 00 . Allover asquare charged as two squares. TAdvertisements inserted till forbid at the

pense of the advertiser. JOB WORK

xecuted at this Office with neatness andde patch, at the lowest possible rates.

Doetical.

THE SONG OF LIBERTY.

Oh! starry flag of liberty.

Bright banner of the brave.
Thy meteor hues above us
In the air of freedom wave;
There in thy pride and glory Thou floatest overhead— Above a broad and happy land,

No despot dares to tread. Although thy stars and stripes to-day, In peace reflect the light, They boldly, freely flaunted

In the stormy gale of light,
When bled our gallant fathers,
That their children might be free,
And 'neath thy broad, protecting fold Fought on to victory. Thy beauty beams wherever A fing salutes the breeze,
Above the tide of foreign ports,

Or on the ocean star;
But brightest shine thy colors
O'er the wide land of the free.
Where patriot hearts with pride and joy,
Look fondly up to thee.

And when, in all the course of time, And when, in all the course of time.
Returns this glorious day.
Still beat, as now, free happy hearts,
Beneath thy guardian away;
And grace thy lovely form in peace
A nation's jubilee—
God bless thee, noble banner!

Bright banner of the free

Miscellaneous

FAMILY VS. COMPANY; FOUR KINDS OF CAKE.

CHAPTER I.

'It is all folly, wife P exclaimed Mr. So-tham Somes, a matter-of-f ct. plain-spoken sort of a man, to his better half. 'There you have got no less than four kinds of preserves, to say nothing of knick-knacks and gim-

The fact was, that Mrs. Somes was having the parson wouldn't touch one of them. the ministers, his wife and two grown and daughters to take tea with her. She had been engaged for three days in the preparations, and anch a display of nice things was calculated to astonish the minister and his family to give ly at her folly in attempting to make a display beyond her means.

The Somes' werein comfortable circumstan-Mr. Somes was a farmer, and probably were more courteous, and each nibbled a small wife, who wasted no more of her culmary skill upon her own family than was absolutely necessary. But she delighted in making a great appearance when she had company.—

Mr. Somers and the hoys were sometimes so they don't be whole party withdrew, mentally determined to make it a long time before they don't be a company.—

Mr. Somers and the hoys were sometimes so they don't be whole party withdrew, mentally determined to make it a long time before they don't be with the with the contract of Mrs. Somes was a careful, prudent houseill-natured as to grow! at her careful catering they took tea with Mrs. Somers again. when the house contained no company; and itent them to the hone to see such extraordi-have,' replied the husband: 'i should think the articles on the board of the lady who had you were going to have the President, or the placed four kinds of cake before company. Royal family to take ten with you."

to give my visitors." I really believe if you had your own way, you would have me as mean as the Smith's.' as any in town; and I'll warrant Parson Meeklie thinks a heap more of them than he does had just graced the table just a fortnight be-of you with uil your our kinds of cake." You're a fool, Mr. Somers !' I' fool enough to know that folks are not judged by the quality of sweet cake they put before Noah and his friends in the ark. Six upon the table when they have company. I long red potatoes, unpealed, even unsprouted repeat it; there are no better people in the completed the array of edibles ornamental and town than the Smith's." 'I a'pose not; but they had nothing but cold biscuit and molasses gingerbread when we lated.

took tes there." "That's as good as they can afford; but it is no better than they have every day, and I admire their independence." They're contemptible, mean folks !' "Why? Because they do not attempt to make folks believe they live better than they do? For my part I don't think it is any better than hypocrisy to make such a parade of victuals as you do, especially when it is hard work for me and the boys to get a decent meal

'Dit anybody ever hear the like ?' grouned the lady, who had by this time arrived a! the pitch of excitement when tears are more effective than words.

Perhaps they never did; but if over I see anything of this sort again, they will be prelly likely to hear of it,' replied Mr. Somes, throw ing off his blue frock, and commencing his preparations for taking tea with the minister.

BY W. C. GOULD.

"Penriess and Free."

$1,50per Annum in Advance.

New Series.

EATON, PREBLE COUNTY, O. SEPT. 14. 1854

Vol. 11, No. 13.

the excitement of the interview in the kitch- could see that once his eyes wandered over en, and her hand trembled slightly as she the table.
handed Mrs. Meeklie her tea. Somes had 'Glad to see you, parson; sit down and take donned his best blue coat with brass buttons, some dinner with us, said Somes, shaking the which had done duty as a Sunday garment for minister by the hand.

fifteen years. He seemed to be somewhat uneasy, and the parson.

parson to refuse the hot biscuit she had taken my guests.'

of his vain parishioners.

'My biscuits are not very nice: I did not have as good luck as I generally do,' suggested the him. lady as the minister's wife took a second cake. 'Better !' suggested Some. The lady I oked at him with very evident marks of displeasure.

them a twofold surprise, first at the variety and never made nies and cake for her own family, them a twofold surprise, first at the variety and never made nies and cake for her own family, the variety and the variety and his income might wave amounted to $400 a piece of the rich pound caker but they seem ed to do it against their better judgment.

The truth was they felt embarrassed by the

CHAPTER III.

before she became a wife, grumble at the ambroria and nectar of the gods, we deem it necessary to particularize

Certainly there was variety enough to satis-"I sm going to have the Rev. Mr. Meeklie by the most fickle taste. On a broken plate by that army of mice which Whittington's cat destroyed. These bones had been in service "The Smith's are as good folks and as liberal during the last twelve days. The joint, a which they were the disintegrated members

There were sundry articles, antique, oldfashioned 'tit-bits,' which might have been set

The farmer's nose contracted, as before re-

'Where's the mest I sent home ?' 'Hanging in the well.' 'Hadn't we better out it?' 'I want it for company next Sunday.'

'The-abem! Company again ?'
'I expect my brother will dine with us then, want something fit to set before him." The lady looked sulky.

Parmer Somes turned up his nose.

'And do you mean to sterve me and the boy's I should like to know if there is not enough for you ? said the dame pointing to the table.

'Did I ever refuse to buy victuals when you wanted them ?' he said rather sternly. 'Not that I know of, but I didn't suppose you wanted to buy fresh meat every lay, toturned the wife, sourly. I am sure I try to be as economical as I can.'

Pour kinds of cake, which nobody would touch, I suppose is prudent, ain't it?' 'Ah, good morning, Mr. Somes, I am glad to

'Thank you, I don't care if I do,' replied 'I have a long walk to take be-

and crusty for a courteous host.

*Won't you pass the biscuit to Mr. Meeklie.

busband? said Mrs. Somes with her sweetest

Husband sent home a joint of vest, but it didn't

"He gives his friends nothing but ginger-es of man's history and what would his laws save been-what his civilization? Chaisinnity is mixed up with our very being and our daily life; there is not a familiar object tround un which does not wearn different ha-

The Ohio State Journal tell a story of an Irishman of the better class, who thought he rust conform to the fashionable mania in paying a visit to the Falls, and taking a look at

IT The following scene was witnessed a long out. First class in Natural Philosophy stand up. What's attraction?"

Please air, I know. It's the look a blue eyed gal gives her lover." Right! Now tell me what inertia is."

are—a feeling that a piece of calico experien-ces when leaning against a canaay-colored. The Count bul prepared for this, yet fearing ces when leaning against a canasy-colored of which was a religious man, was called up to be whipped for code mislemeanor. Little Jack went frembling and valid to the collection Pray sir, will you wait till I say my pray

'Well then,' replied Jack, friumphantly 'Pill say them when I get ashore P

FTA centleman, popping his Lead through niler's shop window, in order to obtain a full lieving his wife dead, hastily gathered some during his expedition of last winter. view of the operatives, exclaimed: -What o'clock is it?"

Upon which the tailor lifted his laphour and struck him a blow apon the head, answer-

"It has just struck one."

BLEEDING A WIFE TO DEATH.

The Paris correspondent of the National Era

and crusty for a courteous host.

When the lady interposed.

His forcunately for the forcunation discover that he release of their lady, applied all the necessary remedies, their lady, applied all the necessary remed rise of displeasure.

'They are very nice,' said the paraôn's we have four kinds of cake.'

The paraon consumed one 'long red,' and in a rather poverty stringen way, trusting to Twenty years ago, this one made candles. made them known to the world and to each at bounty; a poer cousin, whose ill health made it almost impossible to save. Without ansov Learning to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Bey. Mr. Meskie

1 am going to have the Good and his family, and I will take care of my business. Who is a singularly forthisding.

1 and a little save and the beys had a were alout to go this, is done the distribution. This was and an infinitely.

1 and his this Nisgara Palls?''

2 other beyer isso to a mysterious corrests of the deep forthis entering the proceedings and so darrange and one sixth all told. They were in the Work, is to the ediction. This gove rise to a mysterious corrests of a mysterious corrests o anything is good enough for them. We never see any pies and cake and knick-knacks.'

See any pies and cake and knick-knacks.'

Do you think I'm going to make pies and cake for the men folks o cat every day? responded the indignant housekeeper.

Then don't do it for company. What is good enough for me is as good as I can afford on the continual to give my visitors.'

The men of the most economics, to the content and the family physical fees, would have probably been successful. Seriously is there to limit be turned on.

Let's re-I but beef stock, onions, rest the some beans; and she had virtually said that they should.

On a worn out blue place, supersonucled, and they should in the counter.

On a worn out blue place, supersonucled, and they should been successful.

Seriously in the form the family physical fees, would have probably been successful.

Seriously in the counter.

Let's re-I but beef stock, onions, rest the bornowed a lancet from the family physical fees, would have probably been successful.

Seriously in the counter.

Let's re-I but been successful.

Seriously in the counter.

Let's re-I but bornowed a lancet from the family physical fees, would have probably been successful.

Seriously in the counter.

Let's re-I but bornowed a lancet from the family physical fees, would have probably been successful.

Seriously in the counter.

Let's re-I but bornowed a lancet from the family physical fees, would have probably been successful.

Seriously in the counter.

Let's re-I but been successful.

Seriously in the counter.

Let's re-I but bornowed a lancet from the family physical fees, would have probably been successful.

Seriously it is there to limit be turned on.

Let's re-I but bornowed a lancet from the family physical fees, would have probably been successful.

Seriously it is there to limit be turned on.

Let's re-I but bornowed a lancet from the family physical fees, would have probably to human gulli.

Seriously it is there to limit be turned on.

Let's re-I but bornowed a lancet from the family

V -r change, sir - seven and sixpence .- scream or attempt to move, but, opening her large ever, stared in fright and astomaburent. jest, but the angered expression of his face or two feet?
made the length die in her throat. He again demanded a confession, and she assered her.

LTThe New York letter to the Washington

Inertia, sir, is a desire to remain where you innocence. He bared her arm and applied the Star has the following revolting votice:

The Count rang for the doctor, but the Joston valuables and fled, nor was he ever heard of again. The poor wife was left to die alone. We are told that a death of this sort is extremely emot. The blood flows till the victim years, refused to pay for it, says: faints-then it ceases, and she revives, and so

How tonesome is the fireside where there sphool, now, I would pause, and call your atlem to buy stumps of help pany cigars."
is no newspaper! Ask the man who has had tention to the thoughts and feelings of this a family newspaper to read the latest news, and poor lady, as for an hour she hay there with through the gathering night, to where, under the little canopy, swung her babe, prattling to liself as it awaited the morning caress. And, Berks co., Pa., there lived a cosy old farmer, writing a French horror, this all would be in named Sweighoofer—of German descent and The Count Rodolph Vessey was the hus- keeping. Our friend, the doctor, having com- accent, too, as his speech will indicate. Old though he and the minister had always been though he and the minister had always been though he and the minister had always been to though he and the minister had always been to the best terms, his answers were too short and on the best terms and the best terms are the best terms and the best terms and the best terms are the best terms and the best and the time how very uncivil it was in the parson to refuse the hot biscuit she had taken parson to refuse the hot biscuit she had taken so much pains to prepare.

St down, taison; it severy make the centre of a wife circle, sition cleared as an account of nis dashing wife the centre of a wife circle, sition cleared as an account of nis dashing wife the centre of a wife circle, sition cleared as an account of nis dashing wife the centre of a wife circle, sition cleared as an account of nis dashing wife the centre of a wife circle, sition cleared as an account of nis dashing wife the centre of a wife circle, sition cleared as an account of nis dashing wife the centre of a wife circle, sition cleared as an account of nis dashing wife the centre of a wife circle, sition cleared as an account of nis dashing wife the centre of a wife circle, sition cleared as an account of nis dashing wife the centre of a wife circle, sition cleared as an account of nis dashing wife the centre of a wife circle, sition cleared as an account of nis dashing wife the centre of a wife circle, sition cleared as an account of nis dashing wife the centre of a wife circle, sition cleared as an account of nis dashing wife the centre of a wife circle, sition cleared as an account of nis dashing wife the centre of a wife circle, sition cleared as an account of nis dashing wife the centre of a wife circle, and on account of nis dashing wife the centre of a wife circle, sition cleared as an account of nis dashing wife the centre of a wife circle, and on account of nis dashing wife the centre of a wife circle, and on account of nis dashing wife the centre of a wife circle. But the Parson was very respectful to his stomach; for he tound, when insulted and imposed upon, that it was tyrannical and disagreeable; and he paid more deference to his disestive organs than he did to the feelings of of his vain parishioners.

(My business related to his sum with you parson.)

(Plight, friend Somes.' replied the minister. and no one could clima my position in the sunk into poverfur, his wife, a singilitie, and the formal work in the new bell for the meeting house. I am the Countess. This was bid enough at he bitious woman, died of a broken heart, and with you parson.'

(In mice Gott, Peter' which is sunk into poverfur, his wife, a singilitie, and the following up his chair. This was bid enough at he bitious woman, died of a broken heart, and with the great world lost such to him the fact, that one half of the establishment was courted and admired, the other was courted and admired, the other was courted and admired, the other was avoided and laughed at—the old story of the tree responses was in a most matter, fader?' answered the sunk into poverfur, his wife, a singilities, and ho one could clima any position in the darwing up his chair. Who he may have been been to a sunk into poverfur, his wife, a singilities, and ho one could clima any position in the darwing up his chair. Who he may have been the minister.

(What's de matter, fader?' answered the sunk into poverfur, his wife hone, and with the fact, that one half of the establishment was courted and admired, the other was avoided and laughed at—the other was courted and admired, the other was a with into poverfur, his wife hone, and with poverfur the Counters. This were a wind not poverfur, his wife poverfur the fatherity and such into poverfur, his wife poverfur the fatherity has a heitly poverfur the fatherity has a heitly poverfur the fatherity has a heitly phiz, he opened the paper the minister gave him.

Twenty dollars from Smith? exclaimed ment was coursed and laughed at — the old story of him.

Twenty dollars from Smith? exclaimed ment was coursed and laughed at — the old story of him.

Twenty dollars from Smith? exclaimed ment was coursed and laughed at — the old story of him.

The old story of ment times, whiching home from a hall, near ter?

The old story of ment times, whiching home from a hall, near ter?

The old story of ment times, whiching home from a hall, near ter?

The old story of ment times, whiching home from a hall, near ter?

The old story of ment times, whiching home from a hall, near ter?

The old story of ment times, whiching home from a hall, near ter?

The old story of ment times, whiching home from a hall, near ter?

The old story of ment times, whiching home from a hall, near ter?

The old story of ment times, whiching home from a hall, near ter?

The old story of ment times, whiching home from a hall, near ter?

The old story of ment times, whiching home from a hall, near ter?

The old story of ment times, whiching home from a hall, near ter?

The old story of ment times, whiching home from a hall, near ter?

The old story of ment times, whiching home from a hall, near ter?

The old story of ment times, whiching home from a hall, near ter?

The old story of ment times, whiching home from a hall, near ter?

The old story of ment times, whiching home from a hall, near ter?

The old story of ment times, whiching home from a hall, near ter?

The old story of ment times, whiching home from a hall, near ter?

The old story of ment times, whiching home from a hall, near ter?

The old story of ment times, whiching home from a hall, near ter?

The old story of ment times, whiching home from a hall, near ter?

The old story of ment times, which is the ter?

The old story of ment times, which is the ter?

The old story of ment times, which is the ter?

The old story of ment times, which is the ter?

The old story of ment times, which is the ter?

Be Fixe. our daily life; there is not a familiar object around its which does not we say different asspect because the highest Christian love is on it—not a law that does not one its truth and gentleness to Christianity—not acustom which cannot be traced, in all its holy healthful parts, to the gospel."

Be First

Be First

Let the winds blow, and the waters of some have it.

The Count was ignorant of this little higher than the work of the strateger. He only noticed the brightenest face and joylul manner with which this gentlement was received, in all its holy healthful parts, to the gospel."

Be First

Be First

Let the winds blow, and the waters of some have it.

The first blow broke the weed, and also only noticed the brightenest face and joylul manner with which this gentlement was received. First blow broke the weed, and also only noticed the brightenest face and joylul manner with which this gentlement was received. First blow broke the weed, and also only noticed the brightenest face and joylul manner with which this gentlement was received. First blow broke the weed, and also only noticed the brightenest face and joylul manner with which this gentlement was received. First blow broke the weed, and also only noticed the brightenest face and joylul manner with which this gentlement was received. For the first blow broke the weed, and also only noticed the brightenest face and joylul manner with which this gentlement was received. For the first blow broke the weed, and also only noticed the brightenest face and joylul manner with which this gentlement as a possible of the winds blow, and the waters of some have it.

The first blow broke the weed, and also only noticed the brightenest face and joylul manner with which this gentlement as a possible of the will have it.

The first blow broke the weed, and also only noticed the brightenest face and joylul manner with which this gentlement as a possible of the possible of th CHAPTER III.

Wife, where is the piece of meat I sent home for the neighbors. It was tast flow to be a book when the house constrained no such as the borse cannot be home to see such the house constrained no such as the borse cannot be home for their neonaday mean, on the borse cannot have home for the neighbors. It was the borse cannot have home for the neighbors. It was the borse cannot have home for the neighbors of the neighbors. It was the fact beyond the silling r.pm, where the table, with its temptine array of visuals was spend. He did not incorred to the kitchen where is in wife was plact before him. Involuntarily, it is nearly a spend. He did not incorred to the kitchen where his wife was plact before him the sum of day him the piscoit out of the over.

What do you mean by folly, I should like to know? replied Mrs. Somes, somewhat turning the control of the over.

What do you mean by folly, I should like to know? replied Mrs. Somes, somewhat turning the control of the cover.

What do you mean by folly, I should like to know? replied Mrs. Somes, somewhat turning the control of the cover.

What do you mean by folly, I should like to know? replied Mrs. Somes, somewhat turning the control of the cover.

What do you mean by folly, I should like to know? replied Mrs. Somes, somewhat turning the control of the cover.

What do you mean by folly, I should like to know? replied Mrs. Somes, somewhat turning the control of the cover.

What do you mean by folly, I should like to the kitchen where his wife was just taking the horizontal part of the control of the cover.

What do you mean by folly, I should like to the witch was not in any sense an epical of the cover. I was the fact beyond the possibility of deals.

The autional was pread the following the capture of the cover with the fact in the first man and the first mean of a sense of the cover with the possibility of deals.

The aution was pread the following the fact beyond the possibility of deals.

The aution was pread the following the fact beyond the poss ing her husband, she was auxious to secure The Hotel for Negroes in the United States, main lurged and carried the boss some quarter the unhappy youth a post under government, the unhappy youth a post under government, by which he might support himself and reladay that W. B. Astor, Herace Greetey, P. T. Voung Peter had shinned it for home at the Question for Exercise.

What is the meaning of this?" also (altered | Three men agree to build a stone wall. Two ut.

He replied, to make her confess before dy- know when they will get it done, and how; ng, to her ingravitude and insidelity. She much they will make by it, provided lime g tried to laugh, tried to consider it a simple up in the meantime a foot, a toot and a built, she much be heard, he placed hix hand upon her much. Looking at pleading eyes and sowing blood was certainly not a way to ob-he wounds, till his poor wife fained from loss to colbark from New York in the steamer for vorte collect a sufficient amount. Rev. T The Count rang for the doctor, but the loctor Francisco and proceeding thence to the Sierra man and wo man, tired of waiting, had un-Nevada, to fix astronomically the position of willing may onto California, if their excenses. ceremoniously departed, and the husband, hethe pass which he discovered in that mountain are paid.

If I were a great author, of the Bulwer smuggle gold from the streets of New Jerusa-

The plate of hot busenit was placed in the minister, and with such the table was crowned. The minister and his family were duly seated and the cermony was proceeding decently and no order.

Mrs. Somes had not wholly recovered from

Ab, good morning, Mr. Somes, I am glad to se family newspaper to read the latest news, and the witty seed to said the parson, waiking into the country, and reserve the parson, waiking into the country, and reserve the parson, waiking into the country, and reserve the parson of life tossing their crimson appray from het lavely arms. I would remark the springs of life tossing their crimson appray from het lavely arms. I would remark the springs of life tossing their crimson appray from het lavely arms. I would remark the springs of life tossing their crimson appray from het lavely arms. I would remark the springs of life tossing their crimson appray from het lavely arms. I would remark the springs of life tossing their crimson appray from het lavely arms. I would remark the springs of life tossing their crimson appray from het lavely arms. I would remark the springs of life tossing their crimson appray from het lavely arms. I would remark the springs of life tossing their crimson appray from he lavely arms. I would remark the spring about. He day of the parson, waiting about. He day of the parson the surface when the surface with the springs of life tossing their crimson appray from het lavely arms. I would remark the springs of life tossing their crimson appray from he lavely arms. I would remark the springs of life tossing their crimson appray from he lavely arms. I would remark the springs of life tossing their crimson appray from het lavely arms. I would remark the spring of life tossing their crimson appray from het lavely arms. I would remark the spring about. He cally close in the lavely arms. I would remark the spring about. He can the lavely arms. I would remark the lavely arms. I would remark the spring about. He can the lavely arms of life tossing the minister, the many gold

The Democrat

Is published every Thursday morning, in the room immediately over the Post Office, Main Street, Eston, Obio, at the following rates:

$1 50 per annum, in advance. $2 00, if not paid within the year, and

$2 50 after the year has expired. These rates will be rigidly enforced. No paper discontinued until all arrestages are paid, unless at the option of the publisher. TrAll communications addressed to the Edfor must be sent free of postage to insure at-

17 No communication inserted, unless at companied by a responsible name.

The Scake-Bitten Dutchman.

Some years ago, near the town of Reading,

'Oh, mine Gott, Peter, de shuake bite mine

If anything in particular was capable of gradually changed into litter hate.

When the Counters was no Counters, but a he is to this day. crooked stick which broke his ankle, and so Harrified the youngster that he came near falling through himself.

they were wide enough apart, and quite an with soil, and at length to re-appear in new and he would st least at an the sanke by a rap known to each other for many years; but the dress and fresh garmture.— Hunt's Merchants' or two if he did not kill him stone dead; and position of the one, and the world set for Magazine.

Magazine. old man Peter, less loth to have his leg bro-ken, than to be bitten to death by the viper, designated the spot to strike, and old Jake let took the same conclusion, and with might and

'Haw! baw! haw!' roared the old woman. 'Vat a fool. You got Peter's vesht on.' 'Kosh!' roars old Peter, shaking off death's icy fielters at one surge, and jumping up."

'Yacob, vat an old fool you must be, to say I vas schmake bit. Go apout your pusiness, gals. Peter, pring me some peer. The old women saved Peter's life.

Fifty-Six Slaves Offered their Freedom The heirs of Augustine and George Law, of London county, Va., have offered to set free htty slaves, valued at $30,000, provided the American Colonization Society will send them to Liberta, and make the usual provision for them after their arrival out. Some of these slaves have husbands or wives belonging to Practical amalesmation is carried on to a other masters, an efforts are about being made tain a confession; yet every to moval of his hand was followed by such piteous streams, that no other way was left. Entaged at his followed by such piteous streams.

Triplet, Esq. of Pauquier county, Va., is the owner of Henry Twier, a valuable servant, whose wife and nine children will be freed by followed by such piteous streams.

The National Intelligences leaves that the heirs of the Messis, Law. Mr. Triplet has that no other way was left. Entaged at him the first, he repeated follows or blinded from the first, he repeated Col. Fremont left Washington a few days ago has permitted him to visit New York to endeated. California, with the view of landing at San-Herndon, also of Fauquier, has a man and wewilling may go to California, if their expenses

Ly Louis Napoleon is likely to get infectiou-TrAn exchange paper, speaking of a sub- ble with a Yankee. It appears that the Emsorther who had taken the paper a number of peror lately purchased a sewing machine for 105,000 franes, to make clothes for the army. "He would steal a passage to heaven in a The person from whom he purchased had no lying many times, life gradually abbs away; secret corner of a streak of lightning, and right, the patent being vested in another.-The ac usi owner has arrived at Paris, and has threatened Louis with an action for damages. Another of the machines has been purchased by the Princes Matilla, from the American